BENGHAZI IS OCCUPIED IN SWIFT NAVAL ACTION

Bombarded City Only After Turkish Commander Refused to Surrender

ROME, Oct. 21.—Defending Italy's apparent tardiness in sending her expeditionary forces to Tripoli so long after the war started, naval authorities point out that the Japanese, who had for years been preparing for a campaign against Russia, landed only 17,000 soldiers in Korea in her first expedition, a similar number twenty days later, not beginning operations for more than forty days after landing, while Italy sent 60,000 men within a few days, prepared for immediate operations.

BENGHAZI OCCUPIED BY ITALIANS ON THURSDAY
BENGHAZI, Tripoli, Oct. 21.—The Italian fleet under Rear Admiral Aubrey bombarded this city Thursday and landed 4,000 men, who, after a brisk battle, occupied a portion of the town. The greater part of the troops, however, camped on the beach at night. The Turks refused to surrender and made a stubborn resistance.

The expeditionary force instructed to occupy Benghazi arrived in the roadstead Wednesday morning, conveyed by the battleships, cruisers and two torpedo boat divisions.

Rear Admiral Aubrey notified the Turkish commander that, unless he capitulated Benghazi on the morning of Thursday, the town would be bombarded. No reply having been received, the bombardment began at 6 and continued until 9 o'clock, when a detachment of sailors and troops was detached.

The first Italians to come ashore were received with a sharp rifle fire from the Turks. The Italians bore themselves well and, establishing a position near the water's edge, they stood the Turkish fire. They were rapidly reinforced from the fleet, and later, in a forward movement, took the barracks in the village of Sidi Houssein by assault. The Italians also took and held a part of Benghazi.

INDIAN KILLED HIS SWEETHEART

Also Slew Woman Protecting
Her—Wounded Lad; Was Later Shot Fatally

OROVILLE, Cal., Oct. 21.—Ed. Williams, a half-breed Indian today shot and killed Inez Brooks and Mrs. Lillian Mullings, and seriously wounded William Mullings at Moretown. He was shot by D. J. Mullings and is probably dying in a local hospital. The Brooks girl, who was only fifteen years old, had been a sweetheart of Williams. She left him and took refuge in the Mullings home. The Indian went there and demanded her and when refused, began shooting. Mrs. Mullings fell dead at the first shot, then the girl was killed. The next shot wounded William Mullings, aged nineteen, seriously. D. J. Mullings then shot the Indian, who fled, but was later captured. He is terribly wounded. A lynching is feared.

PAIR OF COMETS VISIBLE IN THE EASTERN SKY

PASADENA, Cal., Oct. 21.—Careful watchers at the Mount Wilson Observatory have located two famous comets during the past few days, and announced tonight that between the hours of 4 and 5 o'clock in the morning the William E. Brooks comet may be seen in all its glory in the eastern skies. The Bielowsky comet is visible in the evening, but requires the aid of a powerful telescope. It is of lesser importance and the attention of the scientists is riveted upon the Brooks comet.

Early risers may have a good view of the sky wanderer almost any morning from now on for a period of several weeks. The newest sky tramp lies low in the eastern sky, slightly to the north. Its tail measures from fifteen to eighteen degrees in length.

Professor Cook is a graduate of the Michigan Agricultural College and in his college days was a famous football player. He came to Pomona in 1893 and has held the chair of biology since that date. He is also head of the Pomona Pomological Society, an organization of orange growers.

On Monday the famous old battleship will start for Los Angeles to join the Pacific fleet for annual inspection. The Oregon came into the harbor at full speed and her maneuvers were watched by an admiring throng on the water front.

WHAT SIZE SHOT OUGHT TO BE USED ON CHICKEN-THIEF?

S. V. Poston, who lives on West Ninth street west of Bristol, approached Constable Jackson this morning, and queried:

"What size shot ought a man use when he is shooting at a chicken-thief?"

Jackson replied that most any size would do.

"And I want to know if a man has a right to shoot at a chicken-thief?" continued Poston.

"A man has a right to protect his property I guess," said Jackson.

"I just wanted to know," said Poston. "I did the shooting last night."

It then developed that last night

BEGIN SHIPPING CELERY NEXT WEEK

Orange County Crop for the Season Will Be Less Than
1400 Carloads

QUALITY IS GOOD; PRICES PLEASING

Harvest of 2000 Acres Will Be in Full Swing By November 15

Next week the first of Orange county's celery crop will be shipped from the lowlands. During the week about two carloads will be sent out. By the middle of November the shipments will be in full swing.

George W. Moore, manager of the Celery Growers' Association, stated this morning that the celery is of excellent quality and the outlook for prices is good. In parts of the East the celery crop has failed, and the crop in the northern part of the state is not up to expectations.

Orange county has 500 to 600 acres less land in celery this year than last. Many of the ranchers have quit celery for beans and sugar beets. Last year the county raised 2500 acres of celery. This year there is not over 2000 acres, of which 1500 are in the association. It takes about three acres to make two carloads of celery.

HOME FOR WORKING GIRLS PROVIDED BY CITY MISSION

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 21.—One of the greatest achievements of the Christian Mission and Industrial Association since it commenced operations in the city six months ago, has been made in the securing of a five-story building at 116 South Hope street, which is to be used as a young woman's boarding home. This building is within easy walking distance of the heart of the city and it will accommodate sixty-five girls who will be able to obtain board and room there at a reasonable price.

An appeal has been sent out by the association to those in sympathy with their work to send contributions to help raise the $2500 necessary.

Miss Jessie McDonald, a woman well known for her practical Christian work in Los Angeles, will be matron of the home.

TAX COLLECTOR FINDS BIG RAISES

Nine Property Owners of the County Pay $32,400 More
Than Last Year

J. C. LAMB TAKING IN THE DINERO

The Total Amount to Be Received by Him Runs Up to About $650,000

This is tax-collecting time at the courthouse, as Tax Collector Lamb can well testify. He is head-over-heels in work, but he is getting the coin for the county, first installment of taxes goes delinquent the last Monday in November and the second installment the last Monday in April.

According to the books of County Auditor Lester, the tax collector is charged up with the collection of about $650,000, which is no small sum.

The most noticeable thing about this year's taxes is that some of the big property holders of the county have a good deal more to pay than last year. County Assessor James Sleeper shoved some of them up high enough to increase their taxes not only hundreds of dollars but thousands. The biggest raises were made in the oil fields.

Nine companies in this county show a total increase of $32,419.29 in taxes over 1910. One oil company and one land owner together received increases in taxation the income from which will more than pay all the expenses of the assessor's office for one year and leave $5,000 besides.

BASEBALL GAME AGAIN DELAYED BY RAIN STORM

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21.—Torrents of rain which fell steadily throughout the night, transforming Shibe Park into a veritable lake, caused another postponement today of the fourth game in the world's championship series between the Giants and Athletics. CLEVER YEGGMEN LOOT POSTOFFICE

Worked Silently and Made
Getaway in Buggy Stolen
From Justice of Peace

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 21.—Deputies from the sheriff's office here are today scouring the county for a trace of yeggmens who last night blew up a safe in the branch of the postoffice in Wessing Bros' general merchandise store in Nicolaus, securing over $400 worth of postage stamps and other loot amounting to $600.

The store was entered about midnight, and so quietly did the men work that no indication of the robbery was had until this morning. The men escaped in a buggy stolen from the justice of the peace, T. J. Mulvaney.

ACCUSED MINISTER SILENT IN HIS CELL

Fiancee Believes Him Guiltless—Insanity May Be defense Plea—Fisher
Folk Hang Him in Effigy

BOSTON, Oct. 21.—Rev. Clarence Richeson is on the verge of complete collapse in his cell in jail, while the police continue to endeavor to weave the web of murder of the beautiful Avis Linnell about him.

An autopsy proved that Miss Linnell was about to become a mother, and the theory of the police is that the minister persuaded her to take cyanide of potassium, telling her it was a drug which would prevent her disgrace from becoming known, hoping that it would be considered suicide and that he would be left free to marry Miss Violet Edmonds, the beautiful heiress. The missing link in the chain of evidence is when and where the minister gave the girl the poison. The police declare he is likely to break down and make a full confession.

Friends of Richeson say he must be insane, and it is likely that if finally indicted for murder, insanity will be the defense. Mrs. Linnell, mother of the dead girl, said today that she is absolutely convinced that the minister is insane, and cited numerous recent acts which she said indicated that he was mentally unbalanced.

Richeson sits mute in his cell, refusing to speak to anyone. He will not answer questions propounded by the guards. His friends have asked him to resign his pastorate of the fashionable Emmanuel Baptist church but so far he has refused. His father and her father, Moses Grant Edmonds, insist that he is innocent, and will furnish a lawyer to defend him.

FINALLY RESIGNS FROM FASHIONABLE PASTORATE

Complying with the general opinion of his congregation that it is impossible for him to hold the pastorate, whether innocent or guilty, Richeson this afternoon resigned the pulpit of the Cambridge Baptist Immanuel church.

AVIS LINNELL'S FRIENDS HANG RICHESON IN EFFIGY

HYANNIS, Mass., Oct. 21.—That sentiment among the residents of this place, the home of Avis Linnell, is strongly inflamed against Rev. Clarence Richeson, her alleged slayer.

HOME VISITATION WILL BE FEATURE OF THE CONVENTION

One of the new features of Sunday School work to be introduced at the big County Sunday school convention to be held in this city on Wednesday and Thursday of next week will be Home Visitation.

The Home Visitation Movement is a systematic plan through which every home in the largest city can be visited in a single half day. It is to give a printed invitation to all the people inviting them to attend the Sunday school and church of their choice, and to secure a record of the church preference of every individual, to be given to the pastor of the church preferred.

It has been done in Philadelphia, Louisville, Denver, Toronto, Oklahoma City, New Orleans, and a number of other cities, each in a single half day, with marked improvements in the plans and results after each effort. Kentucky and Colorado are two states where statewide campaigns have been made. In many districts in Kentucky every man, woman and child is enrolled in the main Sunday School, or in the Home Department, or Cradle Roll. This is true of many districts of Oklahoma also, where fine work has been done. Of the 400,000 people visited in Canada more than 58,000 have been brought into the Sunday schools and churches. Ten years ago only one in twelve of Colorado's population was in the Sunday school, while one in five of the entire population of the state is now in the Sunday school. Visitation Day was observed in Chicago on Oct. 8, of last year, and reports show that more than 1,800,000 people were visited in a single afternoon.

Plans and preparations are well under way for the observance of "Visitation Day" here, Wednesday afternoon will be devoted to the work. The city is now being divided into districts, and District Superintendents are being appointed. A detailed announcement of the names of the District Superintendents, and of the work to be done and information to be secured will appear in the papers soon.

PEKING, Oct. 21.—It is reported that Yuan Shi Kai, the veteran Chinese diplomat who rose to the greatest fame during the Boxer uprising, has reconsidered his refusal of the viceroyalty at Hunan and Hupeh and will join the rebels as their leader. This is most sensational and if true as reported, absolutely means the complete overthrow of the Manchu government.

SECESSION EXPECTED AS RESULT OF REBEL GAINS

PEKING, Oct. 21.—All the telegraph lines between here and Shanghai were destroyed Thursday night. The foreign consulates are using the wireless to transmit messages between the two cities.

The rebel victory has created great rejoicing here and throughout the adjacent provinces.

* Mutiny among the imperial troops is widespread. The men declare they have not been paid and refuse to march against the rebels in Szechuen.

Secession of all provinces south of the Yangtze river and several on the north side is expected in foreign circles, as the result of the rebels' victory. It is believed a wholesale desertion to the rebel side will follow.

I AM THE PRINTING PRESS

ROBERT H. DAVIS

I am the printing press, born of the mother earth. My heart is of steel, my limbs are of iron, and my fingers are of brass.

I sing the songs of the world, the oratorios of history, the symphonies of all time.

I am the voice of today, the herald of tomorrow. I weave into the warp of the past the woof of the future. I tell the stories of peace and war alike.

I make the human heart beat with passion or tenderness. I stir the pulse of nations, and make brave men do braver deeds, and soldiers die.

I inspire the midnight toiler, weary at his loom, to lift his head again and gaze, with fearlessness, into the vast beyond, seeking the consolation of a hope eternal.

When I speak, a myriad people listen to my voice. The Saxon, the Celt, the Hun, the Slav, the Hindu, all comprehend me.

I am the tireless clarion of the news. I cry your joys and sorrows every hour. I fill the dullard's mind with thoughts uplifting. I am light, knowledge, power. I epitomize the conquests of mind over matter.

I am the record of all things mankind has achieved. My offspring comes to you in the candle's glow, amid the dim lamps of poverty, the splendor of riches; at sunrise, at high noon, and in the waning evening.

I am the laughter and tears of the world, and I shall never die until all things return to the immutable dust.

I am the printing press.

ADMIRAL SAH CAPTIVE OF REBELS

Panic Prevails in Official Circles—Flag Ship Said to Have Been Sunk

SHANGHAI'S FALL IS NOW LOOKED FOR AT ANY HOUR

Rebels Control Valley From Hankow to Shanghai—U.
S. Busy at Manila

PEKING, Oct. 21.—Consternation is general in official circles today in view of reports that Admiral Sah's flagship has been sunk by the rebels, and that the commander himself was captured during a battle between the government naval forces and rebel land troops on the Yangtze river, near Hankow. The panic is general, Shanghai's fall is expected hourly, and preparations are being made to protect this city. Walls are being fortified, and the populace is in a state of great excitement.

From all reports, the entire valley, from Hankow to Shanghai, is really under rebel control, with the single exception of Shanghai, and it seems inevitable that Shanghai will be the next city to fall. If it is captured, the revolutionists will have secured control of the empire's most valuable seaport, from a military viewpoint, and the Manchu dynasty will be almost certain to fall. All communication with the interior has been severed, and this apparently confirms the report Chang Sha in the province of Honan, has fallen into the hands of the rebels.

YANG SHI KAI SAID TO HAVE GONE OVER TO REBELS

JUSTICE'S COURTS WILL STILL EXIST

Supreme Court Decides That Amendment 18 Does Not
Abolish System

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 21.—The supreme court, sitting here, yesterday upheld the decision of Judge Willis, which declared that amendment 18 did not abolish justice courts. Referring to justice courts as the "poor man's court" Willis decided the amendment does not intend that any complete system is to be replaced by any incomplete system. He held the term "inferior courts" in the amendment meant justice courts, and that the amendment merely gave the legislature power to establish more of such tribunals as it saw fit.

Hill was riding east on East Fourth street when Grant turned across to go south on Lacy, and, according to Hill, Grant cut the corner short. Hill could not stop his bicycle or dismount. He turned the front wheel, put his hand out against the automobile and threw himself to the ground. He escaped with a skinned hand and elbow and some torn clothing.

WAR DECLARED

Catarrh Germs Must Be Conquered or Health Will Be Destroyed

—If you have catarrh you must vanquish an army of persistent, destructive microbes before you can get rid of it.

You might as well choose your weapons, declare war and annihilate this army of catarrh germs right now. Stomach dosing won't kill them; neither will sprays or douches.

HYOMEI, a pleasant, antiseptic, germ destroying air breathed over the entire membrane will put catarrh germs out of business in short order.

The Value of the Country Newspaper

Its Great Value to the Local Merchant

To begin with, the Local Newspaper, in proportion to its circulation, is infinitely the Most Valuable Advertising Medium of this Twentieth Century.

Let Us Show You Our Way of Reasoning

The value of the Local Newspaper is based largely upon the fact that the people who read it look upon it as a Neighbor and as a Friend, as a Personal Acquaintance, and they attach to its printed statements and to its advertisements far greater importance than to the statements and advertisements of the metropolitan papers, or those made in circulars and bills.

As one friend talking to another about certain kinds of goods, can influence a friend more than a stranger, so a Country Newspaper, standing on a footing of friendship with its readers, can talk to them about goods for sale or on any topic and impress them as much as their Best Friend.

We are positive that the Register has the friendship of its more than 12000 daily readers. We base our assertion on the fact that the Register advertisers get results and get them immediately.

AN OPPORTUNITY AND OBLIGATION

The Register has so often urged upon the men the solemn duty and great privilege of the conscientious and never-failing exercise of the elective franchise, that it would be inconsistent and remiss in its duty if it failed to try, and to keep on trying, to impress upon women, now that they may vote, the importance of this same duty and privilege. And of course any effort of the kind must necessarily be directed at men as well as women.

In his address to the students of Occidental College, the other day, President Taft took occasion to stress the duty that devolves upon every one having the franchise right to use it actively and habitually for the betterment of government. He directed his remarks to the young women as well as the young men. The new responsibility that has come to the women of California may be used in a way to be an exemplar to the men of the state. There is no denying the fact that there has been much bad citizenship among good men. They have stood aloof from practical politics and have permitted conditions to drift from bad to worse. The excuses they have given for this are not tenable. In truth, their political inaction, their citizenship inertia, has been and is wholly inexcusable. Perhaps the good women of this state can shame the good men out of this showing of bad citizenship. These words from President Taft should be heeded:

"You young men and you young women—for you now have a responsibility upon you also—are bound to cast your vote at primaries and to cast your vote at elections, and nothing will excuse you; no sensitiveness about mixing with people whom you don't care to mix with and thus keep you from exercising your full duties in that regard. The people of California have said that you are able to do it, and now you are bound to respond."

"The great cry of the age," says the Pasadena Star, commenting upon the president's address, "has been for good citizenship from good men. The enormous effort required to preserve good government is not expended in trying to convert bad men into good citizens, but in trying to keep good men from showing bad citizenship. If all good men at all times voted intelligently and with conscientious regard to the public welfare, there never would be such a thing as corrupt officials and bad government. If, at any time, a supposedly good official went wrong or became remiss in his duty toward the people, he would be promptly removed. At intervals, after stirring crusades by political reformers, the masses of good men arise in their might and overthrow obnoxious machines and unscrupulous bosses and institute progressive, independent, clean and efficient government from the people. But the herculean task is, to keep these good men constantly backing up good government, once they have instituted it. The women of California have a chance to set the example in this respect."

DR. WILEY'S GOOD ADVICE

Dr. H. W. Wiley of the department of agriculture delivered a characteristic address before the National Civic Federation in New York City the other day. In it he showed the improved general health of the people by reason of the pure food and drug laws and of the progress in sanitation which has made perilous climates safe and destroyed certain diseases, and which promise to make others extinct. Among other things he said:

"I am not advocating perpetual life, but a natural dissolution is possible for every one. For that reason I urge a national board of health with the head of the department in the President's cabinet. Such a department would be a monster asset, measured by monetary value alone. It does not seem too much to ask that the life of every American citizen be safeguarded as much as that of the coolie in Panama."

"The Panama canal excites admiration for the skill of the engineers, the large apparatus employed and for American enterprise, but it was none of those that made the canal possible. It was the efficient medical staff which evolved the grand sanitation law. Read the sad history of the Spanish war; then compare it with the history of the present army in Texas, where at roll call practically every man answers instead of being accounted for in the hospital."

WOMEN IN ACTION

"Have you registered?" is now the question of the hour in every part of the state. Now that women are on equal political terms with the male voters of the state, they are assuming their responsibilities with seriousness and gratification. In Los Angeles, where it will be possible for the women to vote at the city election which is to be held on December 5th, registration deputies in large numbers have been appointed and their work has become so heavy that more are of necessity being appointed daily. Many of the suffragists have opened their homes for registration, which gives women who cannot come into town ample opportunity to take the last step in becoming members of the body politic.

Many organizations in Southern California which were of a purely social nature before the recent election, have become civic associations in which members are to be instructed on the administration of public affairs. In this city a civic section of the Ebell Club was planned, but the interest is so general and the work so important that the movement now promises to broaden out into a Civic League to include all women who wish to become members. One in Hollywood and one in Venice were in, and others are preparing to make just such a change in their clubs. If there have been doubts as to the interest women would show in government if they secured the ballot, they have been dissipated by the hundreds upon hundreds of women who have not only already registered, but who have become interested in a technical study of the political situation at home and abroad.

The anti-suffragists in all parts of the state are doing what anti-suffragists have always done wherever a suffrage victory has been won—registering, which proves that once the fight is over, every American woman takes up her responsibilities with a cheerful spirit, regardless of her attitude when the campaign was on. There is talk among the antis, however, of attempting to reverse the decision of the people on the suffrage amendment. If such an attempt is made, however, it will be voted upon by women as well as men, and it is very doubtful if any California woman will be willing to give up her status as an American citizen after it has been so lately won. It is still more doubtful that the antis, once they themselves have become a part of the body politic, will have any desire to instigate such a fight.

The suffrage victory has established many new conclusions as to the comparative strength of the city and country vote. When the suffrage workers and their supporters thought, on October 11th, that the election had been lost, the country districts had not been heard from. San Francisco's anti vote seemed impossible to overcome, and even state politicians conceded that there was no hope. Then on Wednesday night, the returns from the clean and wholesome agricultural districts began coming in with their majorities in favor of enfranchising women. And finally, it was those selfsame districts with their incessant influx of majorities that gave the women of the state that political equality for which they had worked since San Francisco defeated the measure sixteen years ago, when the vote she cast meant victory or defeat. However, from this time on the country no longer has to suffer from the vote cast by the northern city, but may easily swing San Francisco into the line of clean politics by its own vote.

Ohio is to elect delegates who will have an opportunity of bringing the constitution of that state down to date, or as nearly down to date as they like, and if the revision goes too far, or fails to go far enough, the direct vote of the people can reject it. This will be one of the first real tests of popular opinion in a well-settled state as to the standing, under close examination and mature deliberation, of recent proposed innovations in government.

Governor Wilson says that the initiative and referendum are "not invoked to 'supplant representative government but to recover it.' They are not necessary, he declares, 'where you can recover it without them.' They are necessary 'where you cannot recover it without their use.' In other words, they are to be employed only in cases of emergency. But there are numerous other, and old-fashioned, remedies that may be used in emergencies.

According to James J. Hill, each farm worker in the United States must now produce for two others, whereas, in 1870 he had to produce for one other only; and hence the high cost of living. This, of course, is only another way of saying that the demand for foodstuffs is increasing much more rapidly than the supply, and this has now been said so often that the dullest should understand it. The remedy, therefore, lies in increasing the supply.

The principal of the Watertown (N. Y.) high school is determined that the pupils shall know how to spell correctly when they graduate from that institution, and with this end in view every boy and girl is to be given a series of spelling lessons of fifty words. Correct spelling is a good old custom and it is to be hoped that the example of the Watertown principal may lead to its general resumption.

Governor Johnson of California insisted upon introducing Mr. Taft simply as "the President of the United States." It is thought by some that he might have said something more, but Mr. Taft will probably be satisfied so long as he can be introduced in this way.

It is a little difficult for the ordinary thinking person to see where any benefit to humanity comes from the reporting of earthquakes that are not felt.

Tariff Board Report and Tariff Revision

FROM THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR

It is quite likely that Congress on reassembling will not have to wait long for an opportunity to begin the work of tariff revision, in case it really feels so inclined. From present indications the tariff board will have completed its investigation of not only the wool and cotton schedules, as promised by the President, but of the sugar, paper and chemical schedules as well, before the regular session convenes. The message, therefore, will in all probability point out wherein these duties are defective or unjust, and offer the tariff board's recommendations as a means of correcting them along intelligent and businesslike and equitable lines.

For the first time in the history of the country, consequently, Congress will have at hand information gathered by a disinterested and impartial agency upon which to base tariff legislation. If the tariff board shall have carried out the purpose of its creation it will have searched far and wide for information having a bearing upon the relative cost of production at home and abroad, and it should be able to say with positiveness and, at least, approximate accuracy what changes in the rates would be desirable and safe, having in view the difference in cost of raw material and labor between American and foreign navy yard is due to poor counting rather than dishonesty. In either case, Secretary Meyer is none too early with his navy yard management reform plan.

REGISTER HAS CUTS OF EXPOSITION SEAL

Any merchant in this city, and any person who uses printed letter heads and envelopes can do something to show his loyalty to Southern California and the Panama-California International Exposition to be held in the southernmost city in California without a cent of cost to himself.

The exposition has sent out cuts of the exposition seal to all newspapers of Southern California. Each person desiring to show his loyalty and wishing to boost for Southern California can have this seal printed on any of all of his stationery, or run in his advertising by simply telling his job printer to put it in. The seal cut is neat and attractive and this office has received three sizes, suitable for the finest stationery, which will be inserted in any job ordered without extra charge. The cut will ornament any piece of stationery it is used upon.

The San Diego exposition is going to be a fine thing. Preparation for it is well advanced and it will draw a great crowd. Every person who visits San Diego will travel through Southern California, so that this is a good opportunity for the people of this city to get a great deal of benefit in advertising from the work the exposition is doing in San Diego, work that is being done so far without the request for a cent in contributions from Southern California.

TOBACCO TRUST DISSOLUTION IS A FARCE, SAYS LEVY

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Felix H. Levy, associate of Louis D. Brandeis, bitterly attacked the proposed disintegration plan of the Tobacco Trust last night at a meeting of the Independent Tobacco Salesmen's Association of America, held at Terrace Garden.

Mr. Levy branded the proposed plan of dissolution as a sham and a makeshift, which has led to the "great trade" in the history of the United States.

"The situation is desperate," said Mr. Levy, amid the strained attention of the half hundred independent tobaccoists present. "The American Tobacco Company owns 80 per cent of the plug tobacco, 97 per cent of the snuff and 80 per cent of the cigars in this country."

Under the plan of dissolution twenty-nine men, who own 56 per cent of the stock of the company and have been convicted of restraint of trade, will continue controlling the company, back to her anchorage at Bremerton.

Wash Day Made Easy
In an ordinary wash boiler put one and a half inches of water, then put in three-fourths to one bar of good laundry soap thinly sliced. Let it come to a boil, then put in one and a half to two tablespoonfuls of kerosene oil.

When the soap is all dissolved add enough water to fill the boiler two-thirds to three-fourths full, then put the clothes in. After boiling five to eight minutes they can be removed thoroughly white and clean. Without changing the water you can boil two or three successive batches of clothes.

This method beats all the washing machines ever made. In this way clothes require no rubbing. It saves nine-tenths of the labor on wash day. Try it and be convinced.

MEXICAN REVOLT IS IN FULL SWING

Zapata Surrounds Cuatla and Demands Surrender Which Was Refused

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 21.—Emilio Zapata, commanding 5000 men, yesterday afternoon surrounded the city of Cuatla, the former capital of Morelos and sent a written demand to the commanding officer of the garrison, Col. Jose Rodriguez, ordering the evacuation of the city within five hours. The garrison consists of 1500 men, mostly infantry. Col. Rodriguez has refused to surrender, saying, "We will die for Mexico, but will never yield to Zapata, the slayer of women."

Zapata's forces opened fire on Cuatla at 7 o'clock last evening and at 7:30 took over the approaches to the town, driving the federals into the barracks.

It is declared that the revolt is in full swing in the states of Tabasco, Chiapas, Sinaloa, Tlaxcala, Yucatan and Quintana.

Talked of Coming Feast

The Thanksgiving dinner in all its details from entrees to nuts and raisins was discussed yesterday at the second meeting of the first section of the Household Economics of the Elks Club. The environment was particularly suitable to a poetic discussion of this enticing subject, Mrs. I. V. Van Cleave, the hostess of the afternoon, having decorated her spacious parlors with lovely roses. Mrs. Van Cleave was chairman of a committee on the Thanksgiving theme, and with her were associated Miss Rosa Boyd and Mrs. Hiram Connell. Besides the general theme, there were a few miscellaneous questions on household economics which were discussed. Later ice cream and cake were served, ending a very enjoyable afternoon.

Jolly Birthday Surprise

Mrs. G. P. Campbell and little Louise conspired against "Bert" Friday evening of this week because he had a birthday. He is convinced that some people can keep a secret. A neighbor called him to her phone at the request of a supposed friend. While absent from his own home those few moments, eleven fellows were invited in and, banked together in the hallway, greeted him upon his return. The surprise was a complete one and so the jolly company was seated at three tables and the evening spent in playing whist. The guests took with them a lovely chair for a birthday gift to the honoree. Then when points were counted, Mr. Campbell came off with high score and so won the prize of the evening. This profitable birthday will remain a pleasant memory in the minds of all, and the company before departing joined in wishing years more of birthdays. Mrs. Campbell was assisted by Mrs. E. L. House and Mrs. George W. Angle.

DOCTORS AND ALCOHOL

J. A. Miller, M. D., D. D., Brawley, Cal. In this age of intellectual development, chemical, medical and scientific authorities of the world, sustained by the observation of thousands of experienced in hospital practice wherever civilization has extended, assert, in one loud acclaim, that alcohol has no remedial value, is not a food, but simply, solely and exclusively an irritative nerve stimulant, in its primary effect, and a powerful nerve depressant in its secondary action. Then how can men professing to be physicians educated in legally chartered colleges and universities, and practicing with the backing of diplomas issued by duly incorporated state boards, reconcile their consciences with their persistence in prescribing alcohol, or any of its compounds, as a remedial agent for human ailments. It is certainly a paradox between theory and practice without a parallel in the whole domain of therapeutics. If a doctor vaccinates my child with impure vaccine and entails on it a loathsome disease, I may have at least partial redress by law; but if he administers alcohol, or any of its compounds until it eats the delicate membrane of my child's stomach, turns its liver into a sponge, reduces its brain to a pulp, inflames the whole nervous system, reduces its noble intellect to imbecile idiocy, and perhaps hurls its body into a drunkard's grave, the law is silent, society is silent, custom is silent, our nation is worse than silent because it has authorized the deed. In the name of the wrecked and desolated homes and the mothers whose hearts ache with the anguish of the awful results of alcoholic medication, how long shall schools and colleges, how long shall medical boards, how long shall lawmakers be silent on this subject. In this town, inside of the past two years, a sworn complaint was filed against a doctor for issuing thirty-three prescriptions for alcohol inside of ten days.

Another echo from the Kansas Tin Shop

When the Tax Collector had been satisfied and each and every other "license" and "permit" and "inspection" had been paid it seemed that we were going to have a rest till next tax paying time arrived, but again we were mistaken.

On Sept. 1st, the law enacted by our last legislature took effect (and a few weeks later it was confirmed by the constitutional amendment) by which we became liable for all accidents that might overtake any one or all of the men employed by us, whether the accident was because of carelessness on his part or not.

Now we would not be understood as complaining of the law, because it was to us only a matter of "dollars and cents," as we paid the accident insurance company $131.00 to carry the risk for us.

Now, if Mr. McKee should pound his thumb or if some other man should, by mistake, take hold of the business end of the "soldering iron," the insurance company will pay the bill.

Now, what's the upshot of all these incidental expenses of the merchant and employer?—most surely it would be bankruptcy unless he charged it up to his customers.

"Jones pays the freight." Such being the fact we do not have to look very far to find one of the causes for the high cost of living (or the cost of living high) and the consequent unrest which pervades the entire country and includes the employer as well as the employee.

If the cost of the product is to continue to increase (and these many taxes help to do it) then the consumer must of course foot the bill. Next!

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

The feature of the market was the advance in quotations on several of the staples.

Eggs were one of the commodities that were altered in quotations, at least as far as local varieties were concerned. Canned stock moved up to 47 cents and case counts sold at 43. The advance was not looked for as the continued light offerings were not in keeping with the heavy demand.

The same quotations prevailed at this date last year. There was no change in eastern or storage stock. Arrivals of the morning were 68 cases.

Creamery extra butter advanced 1½ cents, and firsts were quoted ½ cent higher. Dealers asserted that the advance was due to a heavy demand for the better stock, and continued light offerings of these grades. No change was noted in other grades. Receipts of inferior grades were liberal but the call was light for them.

Another increase is looked for shortly in the better grades, if receipts continue as light as they have been the past week.

Creamery extra butter at this date last year was quoted at 35 cents. Receipts were 42,694 pounds. There was little activity in the cheese line. Offerings of full creamery stock were in keeping with the demand, and a firmness was noted throughout the day. Eastern dairies were in good call and jobbed at 17 cents. Receipts were 4576 pounds.

There were few changes in the fresh fruit line. Apples and grapes were about the only fruits that commanded any attention from prospective buyers. Offerings of apples were liberal and a general firmness prevailed throughout the day on all varieties. Bellefours were about the best in call and the top figure on 4-tier stock was $1.15. Ganoes at $2.25 a box moved freely.

There was good movement of Muscat grapes. Most of the stock was cleaned up early, selling around 85 cents a lug box. Other varieties were in heavy receipt, but there was a pool call and dealers were willing to bid prices in the buyer's favor.

Arrivals of Saway peaches were moderate, the market was sluggish. Good stock was offered from 75 cents to $1.00 a lug box.

The first shipment of cranberries received from the east is about exhausted. A few small lots are on the market selling from $9.75 to $10.00 a barrel, this article will be scarce for the next week, by which time a fresh supply is due from the east.

The potato market continued to rule under the revised figures. Offerings were only 46 sacks. The light receipts did not affect prices as most of the dealers are carrying a small surplus to allow for off days.

Sweet potato receipts were 28 sacks. The market was steady.

Onions continued to move slowly in a dull market. Arrivals were 466 sacks.

Bean receipts were 466 sacks. The market ruled firm to steady.

Clever Paris Beggars.
Beggings is forbidden on the Paris boulevards. But one day recently a pale, poorly dressed man was seen humbly approaching various pedestrians. He was evidently not used to begging, and as he told his pathetic story without the requisite boldness people passed him by unnoticed. A man dressed in black stepped up to him and showed him a card. He carried a thick stick and wore a heavy mustache and thick boots, which are the outward and visible signs, with a multicolored ribbon in the buttonhole, of a detective in plain clothes.

"Now, then, get out of this or I'll run you in," he said roughly. Then in a lower tone, "Poor chap!" and he gave the man some silver. People had seen him do it, and, cheering the kind hearted policeman, they too, gave to the poor beggar. A few minutes afterward in a side street the two men divided the spoils and moved off separately to ply their trade elsewhere. The detective wasn't a detective at all, but a beggar made up for the part.

Finally Lost It.
"I may have lost my goli ball," thought the old man as he crept on all fours round the bush into which it had rolled, "but I will not lose my temper." So he continued to grovel and grope and to wear a persuasive, patient smile. His knees bagged, his back ached horribly, and the bush bestowed upon his hands a generous quantity of thorns. But he refused to discard his smile and kept on repeating:

"No; I will not lose my temper. I will not."

Suddenly the elusive ball caught his eye. Flopping flat, he stretched his hands toward it, grasped it among its nest of thorns and gingerly with drew it.

"Holy-toity!" exclaimed an old woman behind him. "You ought to be ashamed, bird nesting at your time of life!"

And then he did lose his temper. London Answer

A Fearless Quaker.
Uncle Abe was noted for his ability to turn his clouds inside out and show the silver lining. If any particular cloud was dark through and through he wisely supplied it with the lining from another. His yoke of steers had taken the cash prize on the first day of the fair. On the second some new contestants were entered, and Abe would probably be outclassed. But, as usual, he had made the most of good fortune while it lasted.

"Aren't you quaking in your boots?" a friend asked.

Abe thrust out a foot clad in new tan leather.

"Why, yes," he said; "I am quaking in my boots. But when I got that $5 yesterday I made sure they should be new boots. It ain't so bad to quake if you can do it in new boots."—Youth's Companion.

Grenada Was Bought Cheap.
The island of Grenada, in the British West Indies, was bought by the French from the Caribs by a solemn treaty in the middle of the seventeenth century, and the price paid was two bottles of rum. Esau's mess of pottage was a good stroke of business by comparison. The Caribs soon regretted having sold their birthright and vainly tried to get the island back by force. It is now one of England's most prosperous colonies in the West Indies.

HIRED APPLAUSE.
The Great Rachel Made the Claque Earn Its Money.

Speaking of applause in theaters, a theatrical man relates the following concerning the great actress Rachel:

"It seems that upon a certain opening night Rachel received enthusiastic applause, but on the second night it was so noticeably slim that the actress felt deeply grieved and bitterly complained that the claque was not doing its duty. The leader of the hired 'applause makers' on hearing of her displeasure wrote her a letter in which he endeavored to excuse himself from any blame.

"Mademoiselle—I cannot remain under the obliquity of a reproach from such lips as yours," he began. "The following is an authentic statement of what really took place: At the first representation I led the attack in person not less than thirty-three times. We had three acclamations, four huzzas, two thrilling movements, four renewals of applause and two indefinite explosions. In fact, to such an extent did we carry our applause that the occupants of the stalls were scandalized and cried out in a portet."

"My men were positively exhausted with fatigue and even intimidated to me that they could not again go through such an evening. Seeing such to be the case, I applied for the manuscript and after having profoundly studied the piece I was obliged to make up my mind for the second representation to certain curtailments in the service of my men."

"The writer thus goes on at some length to assure the actress he will try to make future amends and requests her to believe in his profound admiration."—Exchange.

IN THE JUSTICE'S COURT

WANTED FIGHT LIKE A LADY

Spanish Girl Challenged Another to Come Out in the Alley and Settle It

Justice Cox Found Mrs. Nieblas and Her Daughter Not Guilty of Disturbance

"I told her to come out in the alley and fight like a lady."

This bit of testimony given by Baudilia Gonzales, a sturdy Spanish girl of 12 years, concerned an incident leading up to the arrest of Mrs. Francisca Nieblas and her daughter Endelacia, on a charge of disturbing the peace. Yesterday afternoon after hearing the evidence, Justice Cox found the defendants not guilty. In fact, the greater part of the evidence went to show that many of the allegations of the complaining witness, Mrs. Francisco Odelges, could not be substantiated.

Baudilia had a quarrel with Josefa Odelges, a girl about her own age. They made faces at each other, and said some sharp things. Baudilia was not in favor of tongue-lashings. She thought the matter ought to be settled in a lady-like manner, and so she issued the challenge.

"Come out in the alley and fight like a lady."

By this time Josefa's mother had joined in, and Mrs. Nieblas also took a part in the words that were uttered. Whether or not Mrs. Odelges was bested in the wordy war did not appear, but it is certain that she went to the courthouse and wanted her neighbor arrested. Mrs. Nieblas and her daughter, a good-looking Spanish girl, were defended by Attorney Steel. Justice Cox found that it had not been shown that the defendants were guilty of peace disturbance, and he acquitted them.

Stoke Neal Again

Stoke Neal is in jail again. A short time ago he was arrested for selling liquor, and was given bail, furnished by an Anaheim liquor house. After trial, Neal went back to Winterburg, and went back to selling liquor. Yesterday morning Mr. Ramsey, who has worked with the authorities in a number of blind pig cases, easily bought liquor for Neal. Yesterday afternoon a search warrant was issued by Justice Cox, and Constable Squires, Deputy Constable Law and Deputy District Attorney Koepsel went to the house and searched it. They got about a sack of bottles, all but two of which were labeled so-called "temperance beer," put out by a liquor house. The liquor has been examined by an expert and pronounced intoxicating. Two girls, aged 15 and 16, named Grace and Laura Napier, were found at Neal's house. They said they lived in Los Angeles and were visiting Neal with the permission of their mother. They were brought here and placed in the detention home. They will be sent to Los Angeles to their home.

Held to Answer

Lorenzo Martinez is to answer for trial in the superior court on a charge of murdering Isabel Hernandez. Hernandez was stabbed at the Santa Fe section-house Sunday night.

At the trial this morning Abran Gonzales and Concepcion Bonda testified to seeing Martinez stab Hernandez.

Considerable amusement was created by a rather wild demand made by Attorney A. J. Green, who with his assistant, J. M. Franco, has appeared in a number of Mexican cases here. Eleno Gonzales testified that he was told by his brother that Martinez had killed Gonzales' friend, Hernandez. Eleno got to the place about the same time Policemen Heard and Ryan arrived. Martinez tried to escape by jumping through a window and running. Eleno met him with a rock, hit him in the face and knocked him down, and hit him twice as he ran. He helped Ryan run Martinez down.

Green jumped to his feet, and waved his arms.

"I demand that this man 'corva' be arrested," he said. "He has assaulted this defendant. He knocked him down with a rock, and he assaulted him. I demand that he be put in jail."

Deputy District Attorney Koepsel smiled his craftiest smile. Justice Cox gazed in wonderment at Attorney Green.

"Your demand is denied," quickly said the justice. "One of the oldest things in law, handed down from away back at the beginning is that anyone has a right and it is his duty to arrest a murderer. The hue and cry that crime has been done is sufficient cause for force to be used to stop the offender."

The defense offered no testimony, and Martinez was held to answer.

AT THE COURT HOUSE

CAN THE BANK GET IT BACK?

Sam Clapp Received Money on Checks That Proved to Be Worthless

The superior court is called upon to decide whether or not a bank can recover when it cashes a bogus check and pays the money to a responsible party.

Sam Clapp received two checks, one for $33.30 and one for $12.80. These checks were signed by E. P. Glines. Blanks of the First National Bank of Santa Ana were used, Santa Ana being crossed out and Garden Grove written in. There is no First National Bank of Garden Grove, but when the checks were presented to the Bank of Garden Grove they were cashed.

Glines had no account in that bank, and the checks were worthless. The bank then sued Clapp to recover $46.10, the amount paid him. The case was tried in the Huntington Beach court and the judgment was for the bank. Clapp took an appeal, and the papers were filed with the county clerk yesterday afternoon. H. C. Head is the bank's attorney, and Bell & Ferguson are Clapp's attorneys.

MR. A. J. CROOKSHANK UNDERGOES OPERATION

It will be with feelings of mingled pain and pleasure that the host of friends of A. J. Crookshank will read this item of news; pain in sympathy with his suffering, the anxiety of his family and the jeopardy of his life; pleasure in the knowledge that he has successfully undergone a serious surgical operation and is doing well.

Six months ago Mr. Crookshank hurt himself by overlifting, and has since suffered more or less, and as nature seemed unable to repair the damage done, the surgeon's knife was finally called on for assistance.

Last Monday morning Mr. Crookshank was successfully operated upon at the Santa Ana Hospital, and today he is reported as doing nicely.

DROPPED CASE AGAINST HIM

Charge of Felony Disposed of When Stewart Proved a Complete Alibi

With a complete alibi, David O. Stewart was discharged from the justice's court at Huntington Beach yesterday. Justice Fullerton of Orange conducted the preliminary examination. Stewart was charged with a felonious assault upon Mrs. Fred Spoonbauer of Huntington Beach.

In her testimony the woman named a certain Tuesday.

When the defense came on it was proven beyond question by several witnesses that it was impossible for Stewart to have been at the Spoonbauer home.

When Justice Fullerton announced that the case was dismissed, a cheer went up from the audience. But few people, if any, in Huntington Beach had any faith in the assertions of the woman responsible for bringing the charge.

There is a strong intimation at Huntington Beach that there was deliberate plot to injure Stewart, who is prominent in the beach city.

TO REPRODUCE MINE DISASTER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The actual reproduction of an explosion in a coal mine promises to be the really dramatic feature of the two days' program of the National Mine Safety Demonstration, October 29 and 31, at Pittsburgh, Pa.

The demonstration, which is under the auspices of the Bureau of Mines, the American Red Cross and the Pittsburgh Coal Operators' Association, has for its purpose a friendly meeting of the mine owners, superintendents and the miners from all over the country to witness and talk over the dangers of the mines and the remedies for certain of the dangers as advocated by the Bureau of Mines.

The bureau has long been of the opinion that coal dust in a mine was more of a menace to the miners than gas, and has frequently demonstrated this in an experimental steel tube, at its station, Fortieth and Butler street, Pittsburgh.

These experiments, showing how easily the coal dust becomes ignited and causes an explosion, have been taken as conclusive by the great majority of mine owners and superintendents, and now great precautions are being taken to keep down the coal dust in mines. The question has, however, risen, not only in this country, but also in European coal producing countries, whether the results obtained in the experimental tube are the same as would be found in a mine under working conditions. In order to settle this problem, and to make still more conclusive the bureau's contention that coal dust is the real danger of the mines, the bureau's engineers started the digging of a mine at Bruce, Pa., twelve miles from Pittsburgh.

The mine, which was planned to resemble many commercially operated mines in Pennsylvania and other states, is now ready for the experiments. The bad practices found in mines where the lives of men are risked, will all be contained in the experimental mine and black powder, the most dangerous explosive in dangerous mines will be used.

Most mine explosions are caused by what the miners term "blow-out" shots. That is, the explosive, instead of breaking the coal, blows out the hole drilled in the coal to contain it, sending a stream of flame into the mine. This flame generally ignites the gas or coal dust. The engineers will reproduce the "blow-out" shot. They will make certain that it will be a "blow-out" shot and then will watch for results.

These experiments will take place the afternoon of October 30. The next morning, at Forbes field, the baseball park, there will be friendly contests between first-aid teams of miners from nearly 100 mines. President Taft will witness this part of the program. Already more than 20,000 miners have declared their intention of witnessing the experiments. Miners in the Pittsburgh district have been granted a holiday for the 31st and the railroads have agreed upon a two cent a mile rate within 250 miles of Pittsburgh. The Central Passenger Association has also granted excursion rates throughout its territory.
